Kidtabulous Terms and Conditions for Childcare

Liability

Except gross negligence or willful misconduct, Kidtabulous Event Childcare, the selected childcare provider, shall not be liable for any damage caused. The parent/guardian agrees not to hold Kidtabulous Event Childcare legally responsible for any accidental injury, losses, expenses (including attorney's fees) from its activities, actions or children's actions.

Health Protocol

The current Kidtabulous health protocol includes: staff have not tested positive for Covid in the 14 days preceding the event, hand sanitizing and cleaning/disinfecting of toys & surfaces

It is the parent/guardian's responsibility to provide all important information related to the child (including allergies and health conditions) when signing their child in, and to confirm relevant information with the caregivers on site when checking the child in at the childcare room.

For children with special needs, the childcare service provider reserves the right to not accept the child, based on the capacity of the childcare services, on a case-by-case basis.

Additional information

The childcare services will not administer any prescription medicine to the children. Parents/guardians must return to the childcare facility to dispense any medicine to their child.

For the health of other children in care, sick children will not be allowed into the childcare space.

Parents/guardians must label all clothes and toys brought to the childcare room with the child's name. No valuable items can be left with the child in the childcare facility, we will not be responsible for any losses or damages.

Parents/guardians or persons authorized by the parents/guardians to check child(ren) in and out need to bring a valid ID.
